THE WIND

O gentle wind -
You are passing through.
Your quiet rocking of the leaves
Is silhouetted 'gainst the blue
Unending deepness of the sky!
Leaves sway and toss, then madly dash
To hide from you as on you pass
O playful wind -
Then all is calm; leaves droop with inactivity,
A little rest you give the trees
Before your mischievous child called Breeze
Catches again the swirling bows
To plunge them in confusion
O reckless wind -
Then with your 'greatest power
You howl and scream; roaring
And tearing the branches with your teeth
In relentless fury:
O dauntless wind -
I wonder, have you ever thought
That all your might has failed to rock
Yon time scarred tree trunk?
God's home-made tower; it stands and mocks you
O defeated wind.

DEDICATION

The London Bible Institute and Theological Seminary will ever be grateful to God for the three years Dr. Alden A. Gannett was president of the school. He came to London in the fall of 1954 from Dallas, Texas, where he was a pastor and a teacher in the Dallas Theological Seminary. In 1957 he was led of God to return to this Seminary where he accepted the position of professor of English Bible and Theology.

During his time here, Dr. Gannett received his Doctor's degree. The school also saw much progress by the grace of God. L.B.I. received associate membership in the Accrediting Association of Bible Institutes and Bible Colleges; a college-level program was introduced; at the same time the desire for a high spiritual standard was maintained; the Stewardship Fellowship Plan for giving to the Lord's work at L.B.I. was enlarged; for the first time a men's dormitory was provided.

Because of his gifts for teaching, preaching and administration, Dr. Gannett's life was a rich blessing in every realm of school life. He was greatly loved by faculty and students alike. His life showed forth a daily walk in the Spirit. His joy in the Lord was real and his testimony consistent. Dr. Gannett's faithfulness in "preaching the Word" made him to be in much demand as a speaker both in Canada and the United States. It was his desire not only to preach the Word but to live by the Word. He was an example of what God can do with a life yielded to Him.

Mrs. Gannett and their four children, Keith, Ronald, Mary Lynn and Stevie also won a real place in our hearts. Yes, we thank God for the Gannetts!

ALDEN A. GANNETT, B.A., TH.M., TH.D.

CLASS OF '58

In a world characterized by many unknowns, those things formerly unknown by the believer in Christ, now point with prophetic finger to a glorious future. Whatever the unknowns may be, they always lead to realities which are in due time revealed.

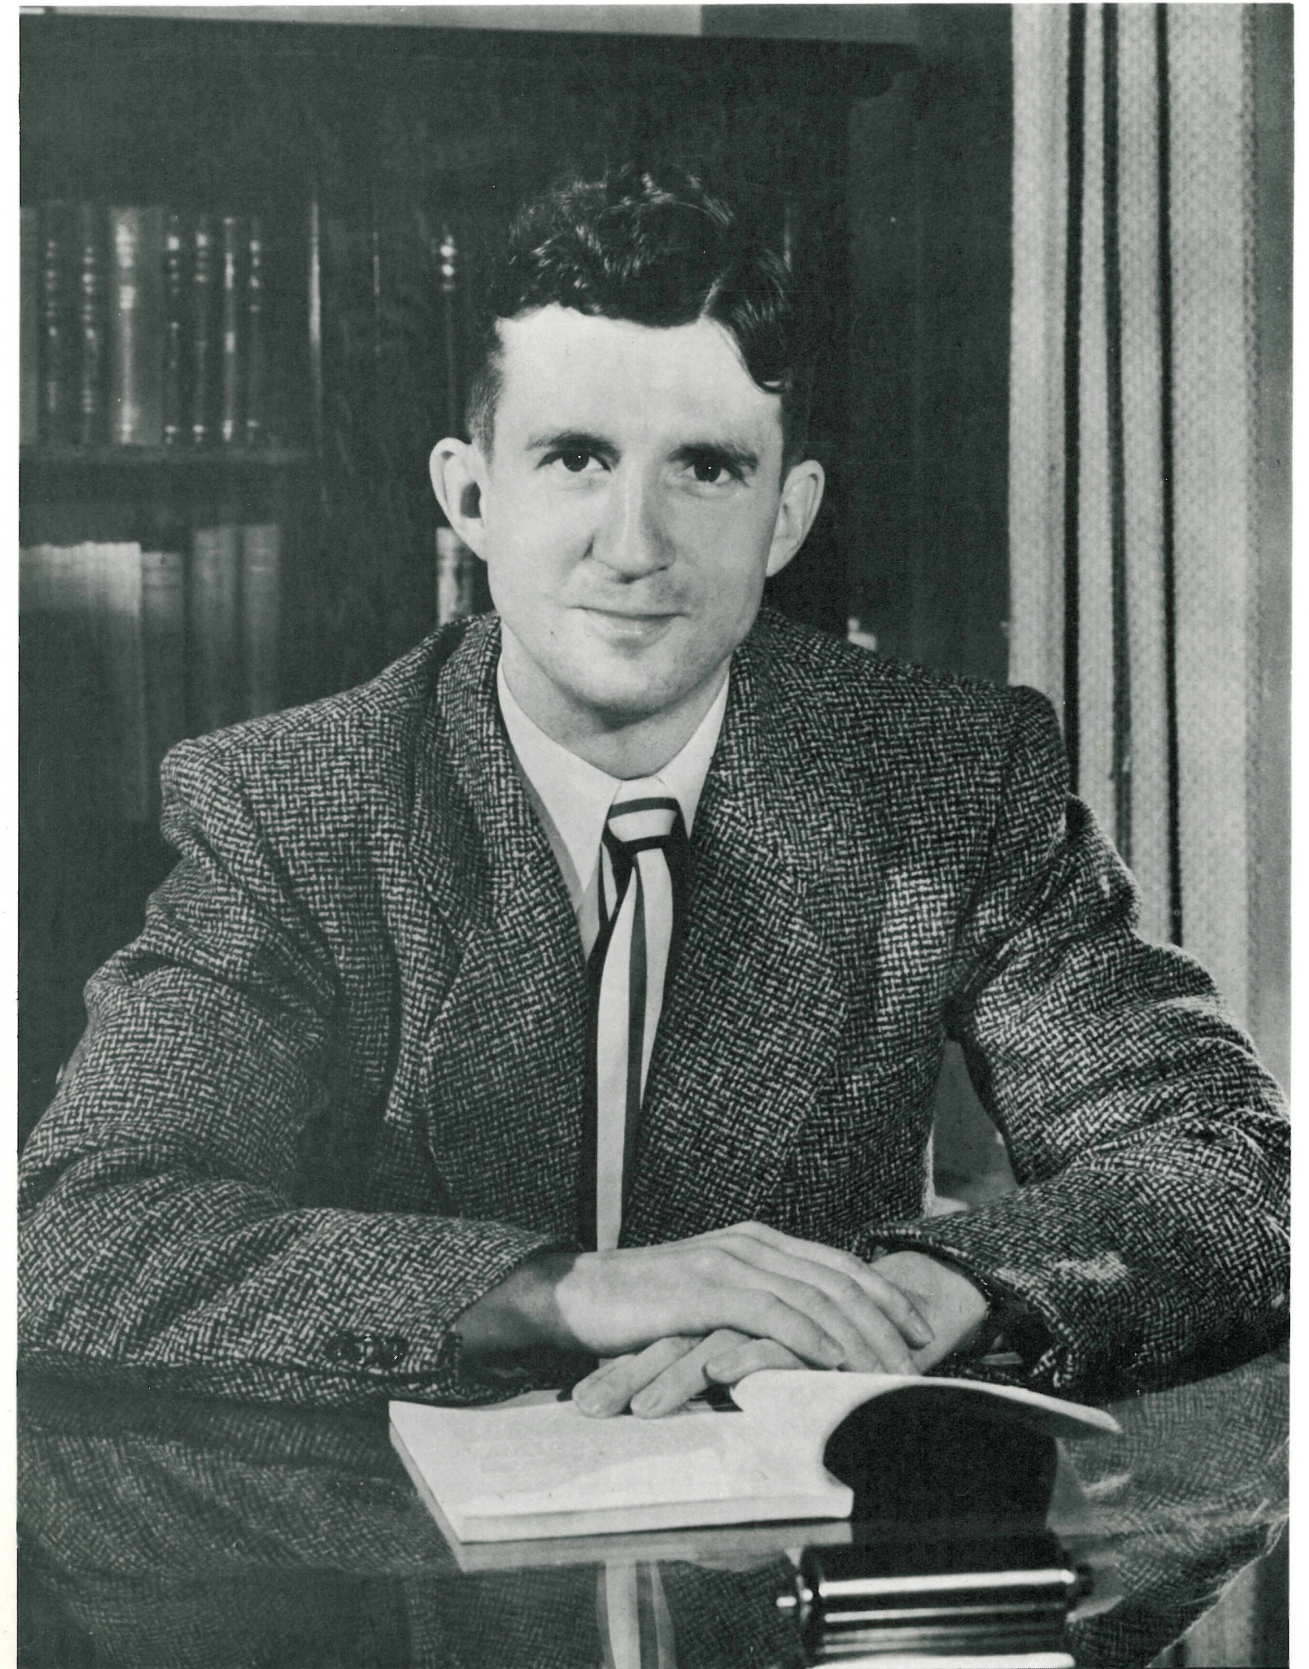

Among the unknowns of the past, the greatest has been "the mystery of godliness: God - manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory."

History includes many miniatures which include this unknown. The noble lives of men and women dedicated to the task of proclaiming Christ crucified have played their inestimable part in manifesting this same godliness to a lost and dying world. However) this has only been done in the measure in which He who is godliness has been allowed to reveal Himself through those whom He has redeemed.

London Bible Institute and Theological Seminary, too, was once one of the unknowns in God's plan and program. However) the sacrificial investment of faith and prayer, of vision, toil and sacrifice have brought 'us to the present hour. While we await that coming event when all unknowns shall become known, may we be found faithful to the sacred task that is ours.

IN QUIETNESS AND CONFIDENCE

"In quietness and confidence shall be your strength."
(ISA. 30: 15)

In quietness and confidence -
Thy strength shall ever be, for he
That waiteth on the lord shall know
His grace and power continually.

In quietness and confidence -
This promise comes for heart and life;
Oh, hear the Father's voice so clear,
Amid the noisy din and strife.

In quietness and confidence -
What balm for weary, troubled souls!
The peace that God alone can give
Is thine, when He thy life controls.

In quietness and confidence -
O precious thought, so sweet and sure!
Though earth and heaven pass away,
His Holy Word shall endure.

So send I you - to toil for Me alone.

So send I you - to loneliness and longing,
With heart a-hungering for the loved and known,
Forsaking home and kindred, friend and dear one,
So send I you - to know My love alone.

So send I you - to bind the bruised and broken,
O'er wandering souls to work, to weep, to wake,
To bear the burdens of a world aweary,
So send I you - to suffer for My sake.

So send I you - to leave your life's ambitions,
To die to dear desire, self-will resign,
To labour long and love where men revile you,
So send I you - to lose your life in Mine.

So send I you - to hearts made hard by hatred,
To eyes made blind, because they will not see;
So send I you - to taste of Calvary -
So send I you-lord, here am I! Send me!

THE TOUCH OF HIS HAND

My hands were filled with many things
That I did precious hold,
As any treasure of a king's-
Silver, or gems, or gold.
The Master came and touched my hands
(And scars were in His own)
And at His feet my treasures sweet
Fell shattered, one by one.
"I must have empty hands," said He,
"If I'm to work my works through thee!"

My hands were strong in fancied strength,
But not in power divine,
And bold to take up tasks at length
That were not His, but mine.
The Master came and touched my hands
(And mighty were His own)
But mine since then have powerless been Save His are laid thereon.
And it is only thus that He
Can work His wondrous works through me!

My hands were stained with marks of toil,
Defiled with dust of earth;
And I my work did oft times soil,
And render little worth.
The Master came and touched my hands
(And crimson were His own)
But when, amazed, on mine I gazed,
Lo! every stain was gone.
"I must needs cleanse thy hands," said He,
"If I'm to work my work through thee!"

SCHOOL LIFE

Oh, give me, Lord, Thy love for souls,
For lost and wandering sheep,
That I may see the multitudes
And weep as Thou didst weep.

Help me to see the tragic plight
Of souls far off in sin;
Help me to love, to pray, to go
To bring the wandering in.

From off the altar of Thy heart
Take Thou some flaming coals,
Then touch my life and give me,
Lord,
A heart that's hot for souls.

O Fire of Love, O Flame Divine.
Make Thy abode in me;
Burn in my heart, burn evermore,
Till I burn out for Thee.

CHORALE TOUR

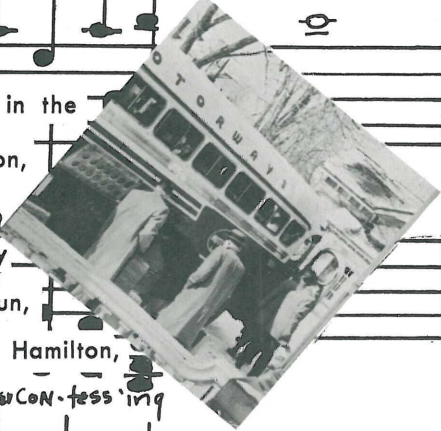

"For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding."

J. E. HARTILL
CAREY ARE

PSALM 47:7

In a very real way this verse was burned indelibly into our hearts and minds as we travelled from place to place on our 1957 Chorale Tour. We were able to sing with greater heart response to the words and music of the songs as our eyes were enlightened in many ways to see the King of all the earth.

February began our spring engagements with concerts in the London area and a week-end tour to Strathroy, Port Huron, Michigan, and Windsor. On March 28th our eleven-day tour began with great excitement and vigour. The itinerary included engagements in Toronto, Cobourg, Montreal, Verdun, Ottawa, Pembroke, Kingston, Corning, N.Y., Geneva, N.Y., Hamilton,

Tri Waterloo and Galt. God's Blessing Preaching Christ His Power Power CON-fess-ing

Times of relaxation and instruction took us to many places of historical and religious importance where we learned to appreciate our great Christian heritage. We were drawn nearer to God as we gazed in "awesome wonder at all the worlds His hands have made". Truly "The Heavens Are Telling" His glory! Although the distances between cities were sometimes great, the time was filled with good fellowship with each other and with the Lord. The Bible study from II Timothy led us to see our King as One who strengthens.

Dr. Gannett's presence with the choir was a real highlight. Following his messages our hearts were deeply moved as with one voice we sang with understanding and determination — We'll pro-claim "We'll go and help this Shepherd kind . . . We'll bring the lost ones to the fold Where they'll be sheltered from the cold." SUS SAVES! The warm welcome of the people in every place thrilled us all. Our prayer for each concert was that the Lord would be revealed as King and Saviour to our audience.

A collage of black and white photographs from the 1950s. The images are of various sizes and are arranged in an overlapping, non-linear fashion. The subjects are primarily young men and women, likely students or young professionals, captured in a variety of settings. Some photos show individuals in formal attire (suits, dresses) for portraits or group shots. Other photos are more candid, showing people in everyday activities: reading, talking, sitting at a desk, or in a domestic setting. A central, larger photograph depicts a two-story house with a prominent front porch and a gabled roof. The overall aesthetic is characteristic of mid-20th-century photography, with a focus on personal and social life.

COLOSSIANS 3: 17

ORIENTATION

September 2nd and young men and women from across Canada come to L.B.I. to start their Bible College training. After a week of registration, sunrise breakfast, informal faculty party, orientation picnic,

and finally the Orientation Banquet with

Rev. H. Horner of Detroit bringing the message - "Abide in Me".

Tired, but happy after an eventful week,

the Freshmen anxiously anticipate their first class and a period of study into which God has led them.

ALUMNI HOMECOMING

"Walk Worthy ... " was the theme around L.B.I. during the week-end of November 22-24 when over a hundred graduates returned to enjoy the Homecoming activities.

The program included a chapel period, missionary film, coffee time, family breakfast and devotions, faculty forum, Chinese dinner, business meeting, Sunday hymn-sing and five precious messages from Rev. George McAlpine, pastor of Oakwood Baptist Church, Toronto.

"In our efforts to walk worthy, may God forgive us if we find our lives fruitless," was one of the speaker's comments. He went on to say that barrenness is a result of disobedience to the Word of God, distrust in God's power, and deceit in God's servants.

At the conclusion of the Sunday afternoon service, we left with a burning desire that Christ might have such control over every area of our lives that in days to come we might "walk worthy ... "

DBI-LBI BANQUET

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

"... Do you think that Messiah will come during our lifetime, father?"

"... I wish He would come soon so I could tell the Rabbis how wrong they have been."

"... Do you suppose Messiah will come through them?"

Such were some of the phrases of the Christmas Concert presented this year. The play was written from a Jewish standpoint and portrayed Simeon and his family eagerly looking for the coming of the Messiah. Then upon His arrival with eagerness they worshipped Him.

The number in the class presenting the play was small but the Lord was truly with them through it all. Because we felt His presence so near, we were assured that through the presentation Jesus Christ was honoured and glorified.

Praise His Name!

GRADUATION BANQUET

The Seniors were honoured at the annual Graduation Banquet on May 17, 1957, at Beal Technical High School.

The theme of the evening was "Mature in Christ", and from the decorations to the message this one emphasis was made.

The challenging message was given by Dr. Howard F. Sugden, formerly of London. The graduating class was especially exhorted to strive for maturity in Christ.

The special music, presented by the Johnson Sisters Trio, made this eventful evening complete.

SPRING PICNIC

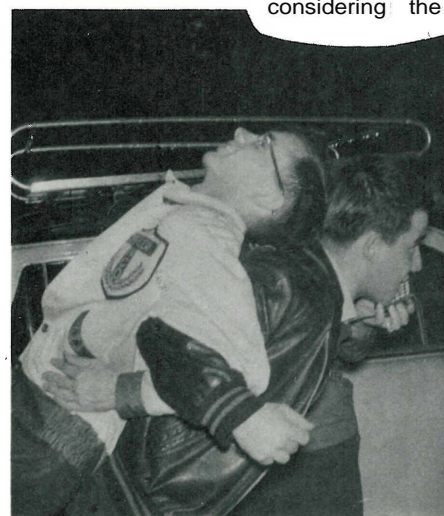

This is one of the "closing" activities of our school year. The picnic was under the sponsorship of the Class of '60 who chose for the theme, "Harvest from the land and sea". Nets with paper fish, decorative golden bundles of wheat, and students dressed in native costumes of many lands greeted the school family as they arrived at Pinafore Park in St. Thomas.

What would a picnic be like without games? As the day was overcast, Will Wills, the sports director for the class, kept most of the well planned games indoors under the pavillion. After many games, a tired faculty and student body were called to supper.

The day ended as the guest speaker, Alan Macleod an alumnus of the school, gave a brief message on the "harvest" that awaits workers across the world. As night came, a weary but happy school family travelled back from St. Thomas thoughtfully considering the "harvest".

BACCALAUREATE

The Baccalaureate service was held on Sunday afternoon June 2, 1957 at 4:00 in Central Baptist Church, London. Mr. W. G. Carey played the processional hymn, "Fairest Lord Jesus" as the Chorale and graduating students entered. The Chorale sang Bach's "Jesus, Priceless Treasure" and "The Heavens Are Telling" by L. V. Beethoven.

The speaker for this occasion was the Rev. John E. Boehmer, B.A., Th.M. Rev. Boehmer, the pastor of High Park Baptist Church, Toronto, was certainly well qualified to challenge the graduates of '57 to give their all, without reservation or retreat, in service for their Master.

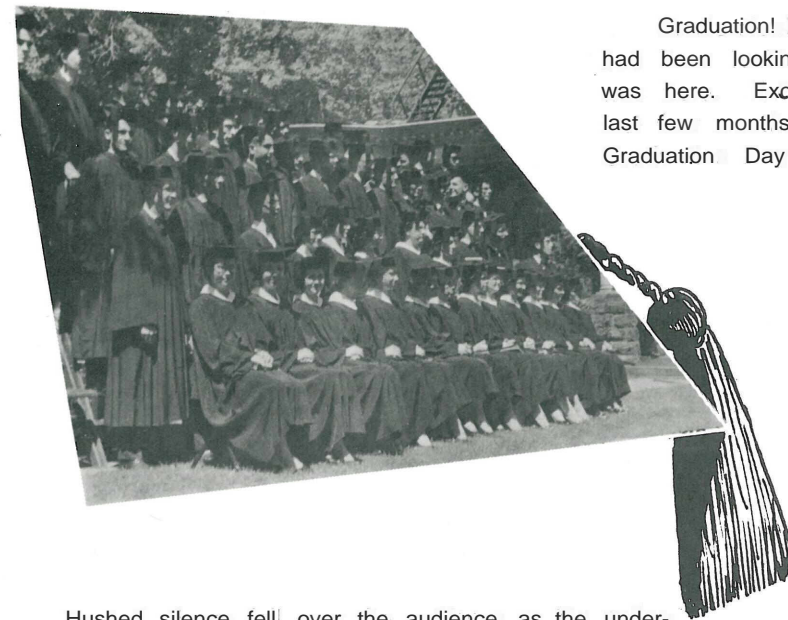

Future pastors, teachers, missionaries, nurses, Christian Education directors and business men were urged to be faithful in the special task which was before them.

As these Christian men and women saw the will of God before them, they were moved to execute the task which He had assigned. They each had a high calling of God and now they were ready to fulfill it.

"Let none hear you idly saying, 'There is nothing I can do.' While the souls of men are dying, and the Master calls you too. Take the task He gives you gladly, Let His work your pleasures be; Answer quickly when He calleth, 'Here am I, send me, send me.'"

GRADUATION

Graduation! The event which the graduating class had been looking forward to for the past three years was here. Excitement had been mounting during the last few months, and then on Tuesday, June 4, 1957, Graduation Day was here!

Hushed silence fell over the audience as the undergraduates filed in followed by the graduating class. After the preliminaries, the school choir sang "The Holy City". The address was given by Rev. William A. Mierop, Th.B., D.O., President of Philadelphia Bible Institute. He presented a very challenging message from John 15.

Following the address, the presentation of awards was made by Rev. Frank R. Koksma, M.A. The presentation of the graduating class was made by Rev. Percy H. Harris, B.A., Th.M. Rev. Alden A. Gannett, B.A., Th.M., Th.D., then awarded the diplomas and degrees.

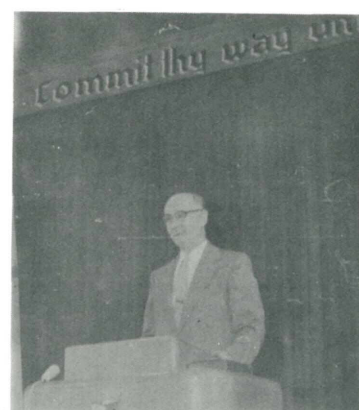

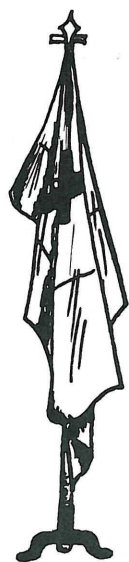

A dedicatory prayer was made by Dr. Wm. R. Quinn, B.A., M.D., followed by a choral selection and the benediction by Rev. Alden A. Gannett.

Truly it was a memorable night, not only for those who graduated but also for proud parents and friends who saw fifty-two young men and women finish one stage in their training for the Lord's service.

REV. E. BARRAM

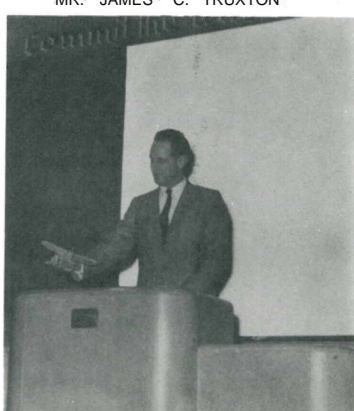

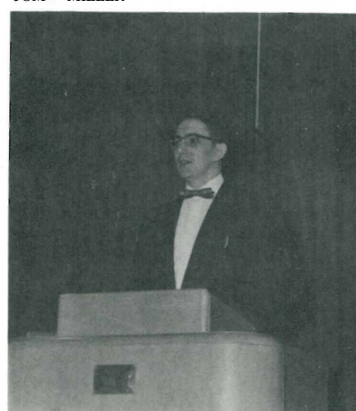

OVERSEAS FELLOWSHIP OF THE
CHINA INLAND MISSION

MISS EVELYN ARMSTRONG, R.N.

TOM MILLER

MR. JAMES C. TRUXTON

Say, do you remember the class of 1958? Well, of course you do; they were really a notorious group! For what were they notorious? Well, there were really quite a few things, one of these being they were the Freshman class in 1955. Talk about a bunch of green horns; you just never saw the beat of them. Something else for which we can remember them was that Spring Picnic in 1956 where they dressed the fellows like Roman soldiers and made them wait on tables.

They were also the class responsible for the Graduation Banquet in 1957 for which they chose the theme "Mature in Christ".

Well, so it went. Now in 1958 the class has diminished till there are only a few of them left. The faculty have decided they had best graduate them now per chance by waiting any longer there wouldn't be enough left to make a graduating class.

Would you like to meet this notorious class? Well, here they are! The President of the class was a Young lady named Virginia who Marg'd time with Davies. Ann, her secretary, was Harrington. Really she was the secretary type. The gal holding the money bag for the class was Norma, usually Camer on the outside than the inside.

Frith in this class came one called Marilyn who had bills and bills, but there was really only one Bill who really mattered.

Cathie was the gal who took a Birrell at most every subject, but her specialty was Jim.

This class used to have quite a bit of fun! When something really funny happened they went into Cowles and Cowles of laughter, especially one called Jo Ann.

Actually our Joyce were more than our Williams since we didn't have too many fellows in the class. Oh, there was Walter whose motto seemed to be "tease the girls and Leaman alone," and that Foxy fellow called Dick. Then there was a fellow Jim who went around Twin'em all out.

We never had much need for a Priest altho' there were lots of plans for Marion done. But then who ever heard of a Pearl that Sparks? Well, we did! We did have one Audrey who wanted Morri-son than anything else - someone else's son that is. And it wasn't Richardson either because she was a girl, Barbara.

Eva n tho' it wasn't easy, people like Riegert Irwin ed their way through school.

Then, too, there were people who Hobbs ed along like Jeanne, and people like Norma who always had Kier stead of any fun.

As well as these we have a few other Ruth less characters who caused us to nearly develop a Whitehead, because their names just didn't co-operate. One of these was Marj Zeran who even when she changed it Dini 'ven help like Zunnebergs did.

There they are, one and all. Now aren't you glad that you met them? If anyone ever asks you if you have met someone notorious, you can broaden your shoulders, puff out your chest and say "YES"!

Seriously tho', we have had a wonderful time being part of this class of '58, and we are happy to know that even tho' graduation may separate us, it will only be for a time.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as verbally inspired by God, and inerrant in the original writings, and that they are of supreme and final authority in faith and life.

We believe in one God, eternally existing in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

We believe that Jesus Christ was begotten by the Holy Spirit, and born of the virgin Mary, and is true God and true Man.

We believe that man was created in the image of God, that he sinned, and thereby incurred not only physical death but also that spiritual death which is separation from God; and that all human beings are born with a sinful nature, and in the case of those who reach moral responsibility become sinners in thought, word and deed.

We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, as a representative and substitutionary sacrifice; and that all who believe in Him are justified on the ground of His shed blood.

CALENDAR 1956-1957

518 QUEEN'S AVE. LONDON, ONTARIO

We believe in the resurrection of the crucified body of our Lord, in His ascension into heaven, and in His present life there for us, as High Priest and Advocate.

We believe in "that blessed hope", the personal, premillennial, and imminent return of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

We believe that all who receive by faith the Lord Jesus Christ are born again of the Holy Spirit and thereby become children of God.

We believe in the bodily resurrection of the just and the unjust, the everlasting blessedness of the saved, and the everlasting conscious punishment of the lost.

The Slender
tapered pump
IS prettier

One look at their gentle tapered toes agleam ... and you know these pretty pumps are the jewels you'll want ... to wear with your proudest new spring and summer suits and dresses.
Quite elegant, quite flattering. Yet so fashionably unpretentious. And, of course, these are Gold Cross Shoes.
Priced at just $13.95 & $14.95

The "Coolie" Pump

Combination ... rac Braid and Mesh ... so cool and so cool look-
ink. In White,
Natural, Navy or Black.
